His Excellency U Than Swe,
Deputy Prime Minister and Union Minister for Foreign Affairs,
The Republic of the Union of Myanmar

Excellency,

It is with deep sadness that, I learnt of the damage and devastation, loss of lives, and injuries caused by the earthquake that struck Myanmar last Friday with its epicenter in Mandalay.

I take this opportunity to convey profound condolences to the Government and the people of Myanmar at this time of grief. Sri Lanka stands in solidarity with those affected in a spirit of friendship that reflects the centuries old ties that bind our two countries and peoples. We share in the sorrow and pain of the people of Myanmar at this challenging time.

Our thoughts and prayers are particularly with the families of those affected and bereaved. We sincerely hope that they will have the strength and courage to overcome this tragic situation, in a short span of time.

Accept Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

H. M. Vijitha Herath, MP,
Minister of Foreign Affairs, Foreign Employment & Tourism
Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka
